Wrappers

Worth up to $2.

The Famed "M—'s" Make.

Public appreciation is attested by the large crowds that thronged the Wrapper Department all day. Proves the extent of the confidence that exists among women who look to Goldenberg's for their best buying opportunities.

The purchase consists of fine quality Wrappers of sheer lawns, satin striped dimities and standard quality percales.

A wide range of desirable styles, including white grounds and black figured effects, also small figures and colorings of Dolly Varden styles, as well as medium colors with fancy black and white checks and dots. Handsome trimmed yoke styles, made with half-inch tucks, finished off with ruffles and dainty French Valenciennes lace edging.

Some have tailored folds across yoke, and are trimmed with washable braid bands; trimmed in the back to match. Still other tailor-made styles, broad shoulder effects with tucks and deep folds of goods over the sleeves. Some are trimmed with ruffles and double bands of braid. Sleeves are all made with double puffs above the cuffs, and skirt is finished at bottom with deep flounce, shirred or finished with tailor-stitched bands. Dress-maker lined, cut generously full over the hips, and with every other little detail of workmanship carefully carried out. All sizes 32 to 44. Every wrapper in this immense collection is absolutely perfect in every respect. Identical qualities sold regularly up to $1.50 and $2.00, tomorrow at 60c. for choice.

MIDSHIPMAN WARD'S DEATH.

Additional Details of the Explosion on the Missouri.

Brig. Gen. Thomas Ward, U. S. A., retired, whose name is on the list of the explosion on the battleship Missouri in April last, has received a letter from Mr. Moody, Secretary of the Navy, giving additional details of the young midshipman's gallant conduct at the time of the accident which were not brought out by the court of inquiry on account of the illness of one of the few living survivors.

The details officially reported to the department by the commanding officer of the Missouri show that Midshipman Ward, at the time in charge of the handling room, gave an order and sprang to close the door of the magazine at the instant the first flash came down from the turret, showing that he was alive to the great danger, and that his first thought was to save the ship.

That he died while in the performance of this duty.

Secretary Moody has ordered these facts placed in Midshipman Ward's record in the department, and has sent a copy of his letter to be published in the North Atlantic fleet and to be read on the quarter deck of the Missouri.

A REVOLUTIONARY HERO.

Contract for Monument to Gen. Mercer at Fredericksburg.

Colonel Brownell, the engineer officer in charge of public buildings and grounds, has made a contract with Mr. Edward Valentine of Richmond, Va., for the erection at Fredericksburg, Va., of a monument to the memory of Gen. Hugh Mercer, for which an appropriation of $25,000 was made by Congress in 1902. The monument consists of a pedestal statue on a massive pedestal and was designed by Mr. Valentine. It is reported to be a work of unusual artistic excellence.

In April, 1777, the Congress of the United States agreed to the erection of a monument to General Mercer at Fredericksburg and prescribed an inscription to be placed thereon, but nothing was done toward carrying the agreement into effect until June, 1902, 125 years later, when Congress appropriated $25,000 for that purpose.

The inscription prescribed for the monument follows:

"Sacred to the memory of HUGH MERCER, Brigadier general in the army of the United States. He died on the 12th of January, 1777, of the Wounds he received in the 3d of the same month.

Near Princeton, in New Jersey, bravely defending the liberties of America. The Congress of the United States, in testimony of his virtues, and their gratitude, have caused this monument to be erected."

CLOSE OF TERM.

Certificates and Degrees Awarded by Gallaudet College.

The Kendall Green School for Deaf Mutes closed for the term yesterday. Two hundred pupils have been in attendance, and of these about 150 live in other parts of the country. The latter nearly all left yesterday for their homes. The school honors were announced in the morning after chapel prayers.

Certificates of graduation in the elementary courses were presented to Misses Bertha Conway, Arthur L. Swartz and Tina P. Jones of Delaware and to Sarah L. Dalley, Lester Naylor, U. S. G. Gordon, John Shields and James T. Thomas of the District of Columbia. Certificates of graduation in the normal department of the college were presented to Miss Helen Fay and Miss Gertrude Bowden, who enter upon this branch of teaching in the autumn—the former at the Hartford School, the latter at Mount Airy, Philadelphia. The college graduating class then received their sheepskins entitling them to a degree. The parchment is signed by President Roosevelt as the ex-officio head of the institution, and declares that the recipient is not only entitled to it from meeting the requirements of the four-year course of study, but is not unworthy thereof.

The degree of bachelor of arts was bestowed on Arthur L. Roberts, Kansas; Harley D. Drake, Ohio; Duncan A. Cameron, Wisconsin; Blanche M. Hansen, Minn.; Edith J. Gustin, Nebraska; Winfield E. Marshall, New York; Ernest J. Hendricks, Arkansas; Louis P. Schulte, Pennsylvania; and Ida Weinmiller, Ohio.

Bachelor of science: Frederick J. Neesam, Wisconsin; David Friedman, Ohio, and John C. Winemiller, Ohio.

Bachelor of philosophy: Paul Revere Wye, Minnesota, and Ernest S. Mather, Indiana.

Gallaudet College will be closed until September 22, when the fall term will commence. The entrance examination of the local institution will be held at the college on September 22, and will consist of conferring diplomas and certificates by the hundred or more minor schools for deaf mutes in the country, which teach about 15,000 pupils annually. The fact gives Gallaudet the cream of the other schools and is said to presage good things for the future.
